OBJECTIVE

This is an official submission of my resume in regards to your project. It is my goal to work with other filmmakers and share my experience to benefit the production. My skills range from preproduction through post, however, my strengths are in editing and directing. I am patient, down-to-earth and focused; these qualities have assisted me in the leadership positions I have undertaken. I come to a project with expertise and the will to go the extra mile to complete a production as professionally as possible.

CAREER SUMMARY

Over 10 years of sophisticated experience in film and video production. Responsive to the challenges of intensely competitive industries mandating speed and reliability. Dedicated and flexible, possessing the leadership, communication and teaming skills for balancing the diverse roles of strategic management and "hands-on" implementation. Bilingual, English-Spanish. Degrees include Master of Education, Teacher Leadership (Carthage College) and Bachelor of Arts, Film and Video (Columbia College).
